The Certificate in Human Services is designed as an introduction to the broadly defined field of human services. Human Services are designed to help people navigate through situations where the person feels they need external help and guidance to move forward with their life and rediscover their personal power and self-sufficiency. Students will identify how to meet human needs through an interdisciplinary approach focusing on knowledge base and prevention and intervention skills. The certificate introduces students to the study and practice of Human Services and provides information about careers in Social Work, Public Health and other social service endeavors. UNM-Taos reserves the right to make necessary changes as needed. Students should consult with an advisor prior to enrollment.
