We are pretty sure most of our readers made a New Year’s resolution to have a great time while supporting a good cause this year. With that in mind, YOUR college library has plans to help you fulfill that resolution.

This year’s UNM-Taos Love YOUR Library event is all about bringing community together to have fun and at the same time raise money for some new online resources. If you’re not at the UNM-Taos Bataan Hall on February 16th then you may be missing the best Game Night of the year.

The 15th annual Love YOUR Library event is featuring a Trivia Game night, and the library staff has been hard at work coming up with questions that will have you scratching your heads in wonder. We invite you, your family, your co-workers, classmates, fellow faculty to form a team and show YOUR college librarians you have what it takes to bring home the trophy.

The Love YOUR Library event is a friendraiser as much as it is a fundraiser so this evening is about fun for all ages, and all types. If trivia questions are not your idea of excitement then you’ll just have to show up to see what other opportunities for fun are lined up for the evening. YOUR college library staff are even working on an “Introvert’s Corner” for those of you who want to get out of the house and support the library but don’t want to get in the middle of all the hoopla. Wondering what an “Introvert’s Corner” looks like? Then you just may have to get off the couch, and come on down.
Read Kate Nelson’s cover story, “Favorite Sun,” which relates the history of the beloved Zia symbol, and presents the perspectives of people from the Zia Pueblo, “who have long decried its widespread portrayals” pg. 48.

A feature story on Jemez Springs, pg. 24, articles on New Mexican food, pg. 56, local art, pg. 62, and more!

“The Year of Magical Living” pg. 32, has some gorgeous photos and exciting activities from across the state for each weekend of the year. Contributor John Clary Davies writes, “Here lies the challenge, and the promise, of living in the fifth largest—though sixth-least-populated state—there’s always more to explore,” pg. 34.

This issue focuses on the 1960s in New Mexico, with articles such as “Offending Moral Decency: the Love-Lust Controversy of 1969 and the Sexual Revolution in New Mexico” pg. 421, “Intergenerational Ties: Diné memories of the Crownpoint Boarding School during the 1960s” pg. 399, and more.

The Grapevine is “AA’s meeting in print,” and contains personal stories, information and reflections on AA’s steps and traditions, humor, and more!
The latest issues of Science, Harper’s, the Friends Journal.

Stop by YOUR library to read these and many other print titles today!

APERTURE
233, Winter 2018

“Into the Album”—How have artists reframed the family picture? Pg. 44.

“Masahisa Fukase: Father Figure”—Parody and pathos in a son’s family portraits, pg. 88.

METAL SMITH
Vol. 38, No. 4, 2018

- “Good Enough to Eat: Explorations in Food Jewelry” pg. 42.
NEW ACQUISITIONS

Call #: QE1 .N47 no. 55 2004

Call #: E184 .A1 046 1986

Call #: SD 421.3 .T58 2002